

Association of Independent Museums

AIM E-News – Early March Edition – Number 80 - EXTRACTS

AIM Conservation Grants – Next Round Closes 31 March

AIM members from small and medium size museums are eligible to apply to the AIM Preventive Conservation Grant Scheme and the AIM Conservation Grant Scheme. Both schemes are generously supported by The Pilgrim Trust and the next round of applications closes on 31 March 2016. More information: AIM Conservation Grants. If you would like to improve your conservation skills or to chat to an AIM member of staff about our conservation grants in person, don't forget that we are offering free collections care workshops funded by The Pilgrim Trust over the next couple of months. Details about these workshops can be found here: AIM Collections Care Workshops

Arts Council England: 'Our Investment: 2018 And Beyond'

ACE is looking at how they will invest in arts and culture from 2018 onwards. They have developed some proposals for their key strands of investment (strategic funds, Grants for the Arts and the National Portfolio), and want to hear your views on these. The deadline is 20 March 2016 'Our Investment: 2018 And Beyond'