

Association of Independent Museums

AIM E-News Early June Edition – Number 86 – EXTRACTS

Accountancy Helpline For AIM Members

Mazars provide an accountancy helpline for AIM members. They can give guidance on general accounting, tax or charity matters, and point enquirers to relevant supporting documentation or advice. Further information: Accountancy Helpline For AIM Members

Applications Open: The Marsh Volunteers for Museum Learning Award 2016

The British Museum and The Marsh Christian Trust have announced that applications are now open for this year's Volunteers for Museum Learning Award. There will be twelve regional winners, each of whom will receive a £500 cash prize. Additionally, an overall national winner will receive a further £2,000. Details on how to apply and deadlines: The Marsh Volunteers for Museum Learning Award 2016

Unlocking the UK's Sound Heritage: Summary of Knowledge and Practice

A survey on behalf of the British Library and its Save our Sounds programme is now open for responses. The aim of this survey is to gather summary information from the wider heritage profession about existing practice and knowledge regarding preserving historic sound recordings. The short survey can be found here: Unlocking the UK's Sound Heritage