

AIM Heritage Trustees Newsletter November 2017

Charity Fraud guidance

As part of Charity Fraud Awareness Week, which ran from 23-28 October, the Commission has updated its guidance on Protecting your Charity from Fraud.

Association of Chairs Guidance: Making Board Committees work

This free new resource from the Association of Chairs can be downloaded from their website

Trustee Week 2017

The 2017 Trustee Week runs 13-17 November. This annual event aims to showcase the great work that trustees do and highlight opportunities for people from all walks of life to get involved and make a difference. Let us know if you feel your board has made a particular impact this year, and we'll share some of the best examples with our members. Contact helenw@aim-museums.co.uk.

Charity Commission to Consult on Charging Larger Charities

After 3 months in post, the new CEO of the Commission, Helen Stephenson, has said the commission should do more to help trustees and that next year they will consult on asking the largest 2000 charities to contribute to the cost of regulation. Her blog is HERE. The Charity Finance Group, Acevo, Navca and the Small Charities Coalition have written to the Chief Secretary to the Treasury to call for an increase to the Charity Commission's annual grant.