The gift of volunteering

The relationship between volunteer and museum is often described as a 'gift' relationship. Read our practical steps to help you create engaging and rewarding volunteer opportunities that bring benefits for volunteers and your museum. Plus links to other resources to help strengthen your volunteering programme.

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion survey

The Ahmed Iqbal Ullah Education Trust is exploring the current state of EDI work in the sector with a view to create recommendations to improve practices. Please take the time to complete the survey, it takes 30 mins but the questions are very simple and you can save and come back to it later.
