Brighter Day

Applications open now

We're delighted to announce a new grant scheme for AIM members. The AIM Arts Scholars Brighter Day grants have been developed to help museums recover from the ongoing effects of the Covid pandemic and enforced closures that have affected many in the sector. There's a special focus on small museums and others that have found it difficult to access other support, including non-Accredited and local authority museums.

Applications are open now until 31 January 2022.

AIM is grateful to the Company of Arts Scholars Charitable Trust for funding the AIM Arts Scholars Brighter Day Grant Scheme.
