

New events search

Find training courses, conferences, and seminars for museum professionals

MUSEUMS
ASSOCIATION

The Museum Association's new find an event search is a free resource to search for and to upload your own events.

If you are looking for training and events it is the place to find a course or conference to meet your needs.

If you are running an event make sure it is seen by the people that matter in museums and galleries and promote it on this new searchable online database.

To upload your event, go to www.museumsassociation.org/find-an-event and simply click on 'Upload an event'.

Our website is a vital resource for the sector and attracts a large daily audience. It is the online hub for museum professionals looking for a variety of information. It has over 40,000 unique visitors a month, so you can be sure your event or course will be seen.

Take advantage of this audience by promoting your event today.

This free online resource has been developed with the support of Creative & Cultural Skills www.creativechoices.co.uk.